Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This is for the time I rode my bike down a hill for the first time - got so scared I slammed on the breaks and now I have a scar to remind me why I can never take things fast. This is for the time I held hands with my sister in Arizona, while her in Colorado. For the time we cut our hands and smashed our blood together, to make a pact only sisters can make. This is for the time I rode bareback in Canada - mountains for days; I was alive. This is for letting go of the reins when you see heaven in sight. My mom always told me you were closer to heaven on top of the mountains. This is for the time we flew home to Holland to clear out my mom s sister s home; we didn t know what to do with the cats and my sister and I paced her spiral staircase for hours, trying our best to feel the walls and become the windows, to breathe in her lingering cigarette smoke. This is for the time I smoked weed and wore a dress and drove with my headlights off. For the time I became a wolf and grew sharp teeth - the time I outgrew being a sheep. I m writing this because I have lost so many lovers, I have fallen apart on the bathroom floor at four in the morning wondering why all the books I ve read told me to cultivate this loneliness. I m writing this because I m stronger now than the girl who fell in love with people who did nothing...
