Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Religious Development of the Negro in Virginia: A Dissertation Submitted to the Faculty of the University of Virginia in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree, of Doctor of Philosophy Virginia is one of the richest fields for historical research; the Negro question is one of the most pressing of our day; the religious is the most neglected phase of the great Negro problem. It could not seem strange therefore that this study should be undertaken in the face of such a challenge. It is a fact, not without significance, that of the four dissertations issued from the School of History at the University of Virginia, two have had as their subject, the Negro. To the influence of Professor R. H. Dabney, we ascribe this interest. Dr. J. P. McConnell s dissertation, Negroes and Their Treatment in Virginia from 1865 to 1867, U. Va. 1905, is an intensive study of a strategic period in the life of the Negro, and embraces legal, political, social and religious considerations. This present dissertation, in contradistinction to...
