These Indians are great producers and are much inclined to trading in the Cordoba market, but, as I am assured by the merchants of that place, they have the custom of hiding away the money they receive from the sale of their produce and merchandize. The second group of Plate III represents the types of the Amatecos, as well as of the natives of Maltrata, which are worthy of appearing in this collection. Both places pertain to the State of Vera Cruz and are on the line of Mexican Railway. The Mexican family, as I have before stated, is the most numerous, consisting of 1.203,270 individuals. II THE SONORA OR OPATA-PIMA FAMILY. This family is sufficiently numerous. According...
