Dept. of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Bureau of Justice Assistance, 2000 LC Number: KF3828.5 . E46 2000 OCLC Number: ocm44865367 Subject: Mental health courts -- United States -- States. Excerpt: . . . Emerging Judicial Strategies for the Mentally Ill individual to individual. While a goal for substance abusers can clearly and measurably be abstinence within the timeframe of the drug court treatment program, such a practical framework is not so readily available in the treatment of mental illness. Courts cannot say, be cured within 12 months. They can expect that participants successfully follow the steps to improved functioning outlined in a treatment plan agreed upon by the participant and the mental health professionals. Thus, the challenge for setting achievable milestones for mental health court professionals is more complex and the functional equivalent of graduation may differ considerably from individual to individual. Range of Responses to Participant Behavior Performance To an observer of other problem-solving courts, particularly drug courts where some of the in-court techniques were first developed, the mental health...
