SEQUEL III is a fascinating continuation in the horror series of the immortal CHAIN SAW MAN -Allen Shaw-as it so fluently speaks of him and his intense journey of healing and submissions. These transcending sojourns take him through many phases that conjure stark realities that flourish within us all. CAROLYNE SHAW, Allen's Momma, was equally a very large integral contribution to the story's throbbing and customary characteristics that were both emotional and powerfully gripping. Allen's step by step journey takes him back to the places in life where he did not receive, but on an equal foothold, he truly learned that it's all right to be one's predestined self-even if only inwardly. There are some fast paced scenes of a different kind of horror genre, as the Texas F. B. I. and the medical world, had occasionally invaded-invaded the ways of the aloof chain saw wielding mad man who continued to fearfully enthrall those who hear him silently lurking-Even from beyond the grave! The truths rarely spoken of the anti-Christ child are most equally depicted with words of inclusion, as all of the opposites in this very same light of intellect, belief, affinity, and paradoxically. Both of these souls desperately hoped for better days, as neither one could see the other. However the old Indian skin walker/Shaman and trickster, had carried successfully-Allen Shaw; THE CHAIN SAW MAN-through his sojourn of very human struggles and concealed fears, as battles with Satan's only son-the Son of Parenthesis-as a child, before rising to power and might, the chain saw as it cried out by its own power, as my occult mysticisms were brought into description...
