Full Rising Mooner: The Most Inappropriate Man in the World

By Don Legacy

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 444 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.2in. x 1.0in. Buckle-up your sanity and step inside the ADHD-addled mind of Butcher Einstein Mooner Johnson, a wealthy redneck, liberal-thinking compost manufacturer from Austin, Texas. Mooner has strong political, religious and environmental beliefs and interesting ways to state them, a reference to his infamous moon shows, aka performance art statements using his plucked, dyed, and polished bare bottom. As a matter of course, he is quick to drop his pants to his ankles and show you what he thinks on a fairly regular basis. Things are all fun and games until the real trouble starts: a severed arm is discovered in a compost pile at Mooners plant. When childhood friend Sheriff Woozie Wozniac arrests him, Mooner is charged with murder and locked away at Shoal Creek Mental Hospital. Hysterical, thoughtful, and wildly inappropriate, Don Legacys debut is a raucous ride into the mind of a true American character, a man so scatological that there must be some sort of brilliance in there somewhere if you can find it! Dr. Sam I. Am-Johnson, the first of Mooners 10 ex-wives and his psychotherapist,...
