Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .(Note: This is a re-edited edition. If you purchased a paperback copy prior to 7/19/2015, please contact for info on how to obtain an updated copy) The Gospel of Jesus is a single edition of the four gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, combined into one complete story of the life of Jesus. Many details are found to be omitted from one gospel version to the next, and some events are not mentioned at all. By combining details from each even from each gospel and presenting the event as one version, a greater understanding can be obtained. For instance, only in Luke does it reveal that Jesus turned and looked at Peter when he denied knowing Him the third time. Again, only in John is it recorded that when Jesus was about to be arrested and He told them He was the one they sought, they fell backward to the ground! Many such details are easily forgotten, yet are essential in order to fully grasp an understanding of the events that occurred during this time. The Gospel of Jesus is for the seasoned reader of the Bible as well as the new student or young adult. It is formatted as any normal book with updated pronouns and verb usage. Chapter and verse references are found at the end of each event which allows a more consistent flow of thought without interruption. Also, for easier look-up, each event is numbered according to the contents list. The Gospel of Jesus is the first volume in the Book by Book series. The first two chapters of the book of Acts was included because it pertains to the immediate events that...
