Despite their hate towards each other, they have managed to live in a reluctant peace. because of their uneasy alliance in the war against the Demons of hell during the age of Darkness, they have learned to respect each other. Between these two old kingdoms, they share five sacred and highly respected warriors, the Sacred five. These five warriors are spirits given to humans by the gods and are passed down from generation to generation. This story follows Serief, the princess of Adrimec. And Jakyl, the son of the master wizard Shiloh, who lives in a poor Alkary territory. Magic is illegal and only four mages are left, including Shiloh. These two individuals from such different worlds will form a bond stronger than anything as their lives continue to intertwine. And with demons trying to return to power, Will the sacred five be able to stop them again? Especially when three of them are just kids?.
