WORK OF THE FRESHMAN YEAR Attention is called to the following regulations governing the work of entering students: The work of the Freshman year shall consist of two hours a term of English Composition (English 7 or 2A), and of thirteen hours of other work each term, chosen in accordance with the following rules: 1. At least ten hours a term shall be taken from the Language, Mathematics, and Science groups (Prescribed Subjects, Groups C, D, and E, in the University catalogue). 2. Not more than five hours a term shall be taken in any one department. 3. Not more than ten hours a term shall be taken in any one group. Work taken in violation of these rules will not be counted toward graduation. A student is subject to these rules until he has received credit for all prescribed entrance work and for six hours in English Composition, and thirty hours in the Language, Mathematics, and Science groups. Special Arrangement for Teachers. Students who intend to teach before entering upon their second years work in the University, may postpone to their Sophomore year fifteen hours of the thirty hours required in groups C, D, and E, take instead of this in their Freshman year fifteen hours in the School of Education, and count towards graduation the credit received for this work in Education: Provided, That between the time of taking such work and the beginning of their Sophomore year they have taught at...
