Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Niklas Okkenon, a professor of electrical engineering at a small university in Finland, travels to Cancun, Mexico, to deliver a paper on new breakthroughs in wireless communications. His life has been spiraling downward with a recent divorce and fights with his teenager daughter. Niklas needs this conference and the acceptance of his paper to give credibility to both himself and his university. A series of events collide when dolphins keep Niklas awake at night with their splashing, and they soon enter his dreams. The request they make of him will change his life - if he agrees. DOLPHIN DREAMS is a novella that asks the question we might ask ourselves when we see dolphins in captivity: What are the dolphins thinking?.
