Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Language: A Heaven-Born Gift Repair to the Crystal Palace, and behold what the genius of man has wrought! Go to the French Exhibition, and see the wonders the mind of man can produce! The language man has there gifted the mute objects with, speaks for the heavenly sublimity of his own. The language of Roebuck, of Layard, of Disraeli, and of others, made the un-British Aberdeen government tremble and fall asunder. Such language will once sweep the British Parliament clean of Puseyism, Jesuitism, and Romanism. It was such language that caused the brave in the East to plant their banners on the shores of Azof, and to level down the Russian strongholds. Because I lack the means to encounter the expenses, justice in Holland is denied me; because I lack protection, a position in England I cannot gain; yet my heart and my tongue shall announce the theme: it is engendered in heaven, it re-echoes on earth; it emanates from above, it resoundeth below; language is a heaven-born gift. The courteous reader will perceive that I have not only consulted Chevalier Bunsen s, Humboldt s, and De Vere s works, but even here and there copied a few passages from the latter; which liberty, I think, is not only allowed to one, anxious to enlighten all classes, and to sweep away the dark veil which, for ages back, hung over the mental eye of the lower order; but such a liberty may be accounted to him, a very humane and plausible one. My thirst after true wisdom and substantial learning is unquenchable. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic...
