Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annotated Bibliography of Fine Art: Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, Arts of Decoration and Illustration In this bibliography Mr. Russell Sturgis and Mr. Henry E. Krehbiel place before readers, students, and librarians a thousand carefully chosen works on Fine Art, with descriptive, critical, and comparative notes. They thus enlarge five-fold their contributions to The List of Books for Girls and Women and Their Clubs, published by the American Library Association in 1895. The notes here given incidentally offer many important canons of art criticism, and may well tempt readers to consecutive perusal. To librarians who wish to select books beyond the thousand here presented, the pages which follow contain valuable indication - as in setting forth the Avery catalogue, on p. 38. The competent and helpful appraisal of literature, how fairly begun by the American Library Association, it hopes to see extended in the near future. During 1897 it is expected that an appendix may be issued to The Reader's Guide to Economic, Social, and Political Science, published by the Society for Political Education in 1891. Within a year or two there is promise that an annotated bibliography of American history may be taken in hand, and also a similar guide to the literature of certain important fields of applied science. In the fulness of time it may be possible thus to appraise every worthy book shortly after its publication; and, in addition to the issue of the notes in book-form, to distribute them on cards to follow title cards in the catalogue cases of public libraries and to be pasted in the books appraised. This plan would proffer guidance at the most effective...
