

Interview with Maj Larry Burris, Part I (Paperback)

By Laurence Lessard

Bibliogov, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Major Larry Burris commanded Charlie Company, 3rd Battalion, 15th Infantry, 2nd Brigade, 3rd Infantry Division during the opening days of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Commanding for 22 months, Burris deployed his company to Kuwait attached to 1st Battalion, 64th Armor for an Operation Desert Spring rotation in September 2002. Charlie Company's call to war came at the end of a valuable training cycle that included a National Training Center rotation and gunnery. Valuable, multi-echelon training continued in Kuwait as Burris' company drew pre-positioned equipment and put it to good use, including live-fires and proctored training under the tutelage of MPRI observer-controllers in situational training exercises. Much of the training also allowed Charlie Company to better integrate with elements of the tank battalion and brigade across a range of tactical challenges, from desert to urban environments. Burris and his company crossed into Iraq in the van of the 3rd Infantry Division's march up to Baghdad. Numerous meeting engagements kept Charlie Company in contact near Samawah and Objective Rams, then Najaf, and then on to Karbala and Objective Peach. Burris...
